

Deputy Probation Officer Core Training

Topic 5.0: Maintaining Security

Class 5.1: Field Searches

Instructional Time: 4 hours

1. Welcome and Introductions
  2. Objectives
    - a. Identify the different types of searches.
    - b. Identify key information that needs to be gathered and reviewed when planning a search.
    - c. Identify the importance of having a search plan and communicating it to supervisors and peers prior to initiating the plan.
    - d. Identify the steps that should be taken before a planned search is conducted.
    - e. Identify safety risks that may be encountered during a search of an automobile.
    - f. Demonstrate a systematic and safe procedure for conducting a search of an automobile.
    - g. Identify the correct procedure for responding to the discovery of hazardous materials.
    - h. Identify key concepts to consider when planning the approach to a residence, building or automobile to be searched.
    - i. Demonstrate a systematic and safe procedure for conducting a search of a room.
    - j. Identify the reasons why it is important to document a search.
  3. Probation Searches and Statutes
    - a. PC 830.5
    - b. PC 835
    - c. PC 832
    - d. The Fourth Amendment
    - e. Terry vs. Ohio
  4. Activity: Court Cases and Searches
  5. Systematic Searches
  6. Vehicle Searches
  7. Residence Searches
  8. Rules of Evidence
  9. Review / Closing / Evaluations
-
- The seal of the County of San Diego is a large, ornate emblem in the background. It features a central shield with a sun, a banner, and a scale of justice. The shield is surrounded by a circular border with the text "COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO" and "1850". The seal is set against a light blue background with a subtle pattern.