

Class: San Diego Risk and Resiliency II (SDRRC II) Juvenile Assessment Tool

Instructional time: 4 hours

1. Welcome and Introductions
2. Objectives
 - a. Students will be able to identify the Principles of Risk, Need and Responsivity and how they relate to the assessment process.
 - b. Students will be able to calculate scores on an SDRRC-II Assessment and place them in the proper supervision category and/or risk category (low, medium, high).
 - c. Students will be able to distinguish from previous supervision classifications to the new supervision classifications.
 - d. Students will be able to explain when to conduct a reassessment.
 - e. Students will analyze the scoring process (with the intent of having consistency amongst staff.)
 - f. Students will be able to explain a summary report to a client.
3. Scoring and Research Behind the Tool
4. Using the Tool to Improve Client Outcomes
5. Risk and Recidivism
6. Need Principle
7. When to Reassess a Client
8. Summary Reports
9. Quality Assurance
10. Referring Clients to Services
11. Client Engagement
12. Case Planning
13. Review / Closing / Evaluations

*San Diego County hires an external instructor to teach this class therefore the material is not available for review as it is not property of the San Diego County Probation Department.