2. What experience do you possess that demonstrates an ability to be impartial?

As a military officer, being cognizant of individual needs and requirements in how I deal with those for whom I am responsible. As a department Director, providing each of my fourteen diverse employees an equal opportunity to express their views on how we can best meet the Department's shared goals as they relate to the overall goals of the organization. By keeping open and clear lines of communication with everyone, and, when making decisions, by objectively considering all relevant facts. By making it clear in all I do that treating everyone fairly does not mean everyone is treated identically. Finally, by trying always to consider the benefits of the opposite choice.

You are encouraged to limit your response to one page, however if more space is needed, you may attach an additional page.

3. What experience do you possess that demonstrates an appreciation for the diverse demographics and geography of the County of San Diego?

I served for seven years on the San Diego Citizen's Review Board (Board) for Police Practices, two years as Chair and spokesperson. This diverse volunteer committee of 23 individuals from all city council districts, appointed by the Mayor, is charged with reviewing community complaints against officers of the San Diego Police Department (SDPD) and to review and evaluate the administration of discipline arising from sustained complaints. The primary objective of the Board is "to ensure complaints against SDPD officers are investigated thoroughly, completely and fairly, giving equal consideration to citizens and police officers alike." The diversity of the group provided many challenges and opportunities to ensure objectivity and impartiality in all deliberations. For the past four years I have served as an Advisory Committee member for the McClellan-Palomar Airport in Carlsbad. Board meetings can be challenging as we deal with County and City issues relating to airport operation, policy and procedure, and take citizen input that can be forwarded for action to the San Diego County Board of Supervisors.

You are encouraged to limit your response to one page, however if more space is needed, you may attach an additional page.
