None of the presented Springboards represent North County very well. All public comments I have repeatedly heard are for the cities on the 78 corridor to be in one district. That is All cities, namely Escondido, San Marcos, Vista and Oceanside. Only Springboard 1 has Escondido included with the rest but that one has District 3 going from the coast to the east boarder, which is absurd. It seems a coastal district should have Carlsbad (if it doesn't fit with the 78 corridor cities), Encinitas, Solana Beach all the way down to include Point Loma and Coronado.
