Please leave North County in North County. As an old thriving community we identify with our neighbors. I have lived in LA County, and Orange County, and since 1992 I moved my family to North County, San Diego, because of the feel of living in the country and the freedom and protections that it offers. To couple us with El Cajon, La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Santee would be taking us back to the "big city" once again. We don't want that. Not to mention they are all southern cities in San Diego. To be honest with you it seems silly. Just leave us in North County, coupled with all of the North County cities and unincorporated areas. Thanks for your consideration. Manny Gratz
