Hello,

I speak with the mass of others who want to keep the East county in tack as a district which should include El Cajon, La Mesa, Lakeside, Alpine, Santee, Jamul, Ramona, and the rest of the East county in the unincorporated areas. We have different needs from the urban areas of Chula Vista, The city of San Diego, and La Jolla. The demographics and life style is not the same as theses areas and our vote should not be quieted by combining the rural areas with the high density areas of Chula Vista, National City or any of the incorporated city of San Diego areas. This would be detrimental to the businesses, Gillespie Field our airport, and the controlled rural growth of our communities. We moved out to the rural area of the county to have land around us and to get out of the city controlled areas. We like our lifestyle and we want to see it protected by fair representation.
