I would like to object to the proposed plan for the 50th district, specifically the separation of San Diego Country Estates from Ramona business district. I have lived in East County (El Cajon and La Mesa and Ramona since 1961) We moved to San Diego Country Estates in 1991 and always considered it a part of the east county. Ramona is where we shop, receive medical care and feel a part of the community. We share the same interests as the town of Ramona and have always considered ourselves to be a part of it. We educate our children in Ramona schools and attend Ramona churches. It makes no sense to be in a different congressional district. San Diego Country Estates is a residential district with virtually no services. Ramona (including San Diego Country Estates) needs to be considered a part of East County as we share common concerns about fire protection , transportation and water. Poway, Escondido, El Cajon, La Mesa and Alpine also share these issues. Please consider our needs.
