I live in Oceanside and have worked in Fallbrook for over seven years...becoming well acquainted with the community and its needs. Being a rural community, Fallbrook is heavily tied to the surrounding cities like Escondido, Vista, San Marcos and Oceanside. Fallbrook shares institutions like government agencies, healthcare facilities and social and cultural entities with these communities. That is why I find maps like draft map #6 to be concerning and confusing: how could you consider splitting up "communities of interest"? I believe it is in the best interest of Fallbrook to remain a part of a district with cities like Escondido, San Marcos, Vista and Oceanside.
