I have had a non profit business in Lakeside since 2004.

I have read the proposed redistricting and can not understand the thought process involved in moving Lakeside out of the district with other East County Communities. Are the issues concerning Lakeside similar to Carlsbad? I think not. Is the population facing like challenges as Del Mar? I think not. Our concerns align more directly with the cities of Santee, and El Cajon. Our population make-up has like demographics. Please reconsider and leave Lakeside in East County where it belongs.
