My husband and I have lived in North County for over 20 years. For the last 3 years, we have resided and conducted business in Fallbrook. Fallbrook has always been, and should continue to be, a part of the North County. Our lifestyle, resources and relationships are more closely aligned with the other North County areas. We share few similarities to the areas of East County. I feel reclassification to anything other than North County would be greatly detrimental to the area.
