I am an individual commenting on the proposed redistricting, affecting Ramona 92065. I have lived in Ramon since 1999 and I strongly oppose the placement of Ramona, as shown on your maps. I support the San Diego County Communities of Interest Redistricting Map proposal located in SDCountyRedistrictingMap.org. Ramona is a rural, agriculturally based community. We have unique needs and perspectives that align with the long standing East County Communities of interest of Poway, Santee, Lakeside, Alpine, El Cajon, etc. To isolate Ramona from this communities or to split Ramona among multiple districts, will in effect, silence our voices and will not provide us with proper representation. The redistricting proposed is wrong and obviously politically motivated and should not stand.
