I have lived in Ramona for over 21 years. We are a rural community and align more with East County and it's unique challenges. We are in the unincorporated part of the County and I was shocked when I saw the redistricting boundaries aligning us with coastal cities and some incorporated cities. We are nothing like Carlsbad or Encinitas. We don't have the same common challenges that rural areas have. I am STRONGLY opposed to this redistricting the way it stands as presented. Please go back to the table and do something that makes sense for the constituents of these areas. This is not it!

Thank you.
