I live in lakeside and I would appreciate keeping east county together. We don't want a district that goes to far south or west. Santee, lakeside, El Cajon, alpine, poway, and Ramona are all similar places that we share similar ways of life. My concern is being grouped within a district where we will get stuck with a representative who doesn't share the same values as we do because we're out voted. We're a conservative town and we love it that way. Thanks.
