You need to postpone any decision regarding our community because a huge % have have not been contacted - my nieghbor was shocked - he has no internet it's expensive or not available- you should have sent direct mail.

About Jamul:

We don't have streetlights.

We don't have sidewalks.

We don't have cable TV.

We don't have sewer.

We don't have city water.

We don't have a city Council.

We don't have a mayor.

We don't have high speed Internet.

We don't have public transportation.

We don't have a walkable neighborhood.

However,

We do have:

Neighbors that have our back in a second.

Quiet.

Stars at night.

Lots of horses.

A community horse rink not a skateboard park.

We know that:

Going down the hill = going to town = Rancho San Diego.

When you don't hear the coyotes at night it means there's a mountain lion in the nearby.

When you say you've "lost" a dog or a cat you know 90% chance that it's been eaten:-(

When you hear gunshots you are not shocked it's just the neighbor.

Combine us with Chula Vista and our voice is lost forever - we must be combined with the similar communities of Alpine and Lakeside for ANY VOICE
