

From: AEMAdmin@sdcounty.ca.gov
To: Potter, Andrew; Fang, Angela; Donnelly, Liberty; Temple, Nicole; lauren.flores@sdcounty.ca.gov; COSD, Redistricting; Hall, David; Lau, Chim; Villa, Nicole; Van Wagner, Keith
Subject: IRC eComment
Date: Friday, November 19, 2021 9:42:23 AM

You've received a new form based mail from <https://www.sandiegocounty.gov/content/sdc/redistricting/IRCecomment.html>.

Values:

First_Name :
blake

Last_Name :
beckcom

E-mail :
[REDACTED]

Phone :
[REDACTED]

eComment :

Keep Jamul, Rancho San Diego, Spring Valley, and El Cajon together with the rest of East County (Lakeside, Santee, Alpine, etc.). It makes no sense to group Jamul Spring Valley El Cajon and Rancho San Diego with larger non rural communities and dilute rural republican representation with the loss of conservative voices in governance. East County does not need redistricting and realignment with non like larger city's with dissimilar issues and problems.

Submit :
Submit