The California Women's Leadership Association (CWLA) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to launching new women leaders into elected office and other key positions of leadership.

Headquartered in the County of San Diego, we believe in free market principles that emphasize smaller government and the role of government, individual freedom, responsibility and accountability, and economic growth.

We reviewed the proposals and believe the best three options for our membership are:

- Draft Map 13a
- Draft Map 13b
- Asians for Equality Communities of Interest Redirecting Map

Thank you in advance for your consideration.
