It really does not matter to me where they draw the district lines. My experience has been that the people we have representing us do not. I have reached out to several politicians I. The past from city council, to the mayor, to my house representative to my state and congressional senators. Not a one of them take the time to reply personally to any of my concerns. So as far as I am concerned, it does not matter which hack we have in office, they are all useless as tits on a bull!
