My name is Yousif and I speak on behalf of my entire family. My entire family, community, church and school is in east county including the city where I live and work El Cajon. My church is in Rancho San Diego and my siblings live in spring valley and Jamul. This community shares many of the same values. El Cajon does not belong in central San Diego. We do not share the same beliefs and values. Please do not break apart our community of interest.
