Hi my name is Zack Goro. I own a convenient store in the city of El Cajon. My family has been a resident of East County for over 25 years. Our church, our schools, our families, and our entire Chaldean community is in East County. The new redistricting maps show you are considering removing the city of El Cajon from East County. I strongly urge you to keep El Cajon, and keep East County together. All parts of East County share the same social and economic values, and we do not share the values of places like the city of San Diego. Please do not break us apart and break up my community. Thank you
