I have lived in Lakeside and other communities in the East County for most of my life. I the hard work the Commission is doing, and your willingness to consider input from the citizens. But I would like to address the fact that while your current draft maps keep many of the East County communities in common together such as Lakeside, Alpine, Jamul, Santee, Ramona and Poway, it doesn't make sense that El Cajon, Rancho San Diego, and Spring Valley are not and have not been included in East County, which they've always been a part of and identify with. All of these communities have so much in common, and we need to be kept together. Please consider this, thank you.
