Hello,

I'm very confused over the new Redistricting map, mainly because the maps shown in the UT were horribly printed. That's L A throwing another slight on San Diego. I guess I should be thankful we have a paper, however from LA, yuk!

I live on the southern most edge of Rancho Penasquitos, what I call the mini triangle, aka canyon snaking between us and Mira Mesa. Does that lump this area into Mira Mesa? I would like to know what district I live in. Could you please enlighten me, it could effect whether I want to make comments to the persons that drew these maps. Also what I feel the needs are here. Like cops patrolling Mercy Rd where all the joyriders and motorcycles get great joy in blasting houses here on Via Cabezon. I can't and won't fight Miramar over jets and helicopters, but those bikes and cars I will fight. I eagerly await your reply. Thank you!

May Comfort
