- 1) El Cajon is the gateway to east county
- 2) While it may have diversity it is a part of East County (Chaldeans and many others call it home) but they relate to East County communities like Santee, Lakeside, Jamul and Alpine
- 3) The East County Chamber of Commerce which represents businesses all across East country from Alpine, Lakeside, Santee, El Cajon has its office in the center of El Cajon
- 4) While all of El Cajon should stay in East County, if that is not possible the commission should look at a way to ensure El Cajon's needs will be met by dividing it in a way that makes sense to provide services to its population and is data driven.
