My name is Rami and I am a proud member of our Chaldean Community and Catholic church in east county. I appreciate the opportunity to voice my concern regarding the new proposed maps. As a family man and business owner, I want to strongly urge you to not break up east county. El Cajon is a major part of our community and the schools, businesses, and member of all of its communities share the same general beliefs, social and economical as the rest of east county. Keep east county together.
