Greetings County of San Diego Independent Redistricting Commission,

My name is Sam Kosa and I'm resident of El Cajon/East County over 25 years. I hope your diligent work solely serves the interests of the East County's residents regards redistricting. East County is a home for diverse people from Africa, Asia, Europe, Middle East, South America, and other places. Years ago, East County's residents held International Festival in El Cajon to celebrate their diversities harmoniously and today they still live side by side as such. Therefore, breaking away any of the East County's contiguous cities to join them with the distant cities, HAS NO VALUE ADD to its residents. Actually, it is senseless, waste of taxpayer money that should be spend wisely for more vital issues, and I hope this is not done for the political gains of a few.

Best Regards
