Dear IRC Commissioner, I am a Chaldean living in El Cajon over 20 years with other tens thousands of Chaldeans, we share same language, culture, values and we go to the same church, family clubs, markets and we have the same voice so we are true community of interest, pulling El Cajon or other cities or neighborhoods out of the east county will divide us and divide our voice and will really hurt our Chaldean community, El Cajon is the heart of East county and without it it will remain with no heart and life, please keep east county the way it's been for long time and don't divide our Chaldean community, thank for hearing our voice.
