My name is emad Dallo. I live in Spring Valley now I used to live in El Cajon all my relatives live in El Cajon and Rancho San Diego please don't divide us. Our Chaldean community needs to stay together. We've been building our community for 50 years. I've lived in east county for 29 years. Everything we have is in east county. Our culture, our churches, our schools, our values, our freeways that we share. We don't have any community interest with east San Diego, they are far and don't represent us. Please keep El Cajon in east county where it belongs. Don't divide us don't take away our voice and representation. Please please make the right decision. We have worked too hard to build our community. Please don't kill our culture. Thank you
