We live at 24875 Lake Wohlford Court in Escondido along with 4 other families. We get our trash and water service from Escondido and vote in Esco too. But for many other services (including some city services!) we are told we're part of unincorporated SD County; anecdotally we are told the confusion stems from us all being the only 5 houses in Esco with 5 digits in our house numbers. All five households should be wholly considered part of Escondido, and thus, part of District 3
