My name is Stacey Uy and I'm a resident of South County. My community consists of Asian American and more specifically Filipinx communities who understand the complexities of international borders. I hope you uphold the Voting Rights Act by including all of San Diego's border communities in a South County Border District. From San Ysidro all across the international border, they deserve representation that will consider their priorities such as pollution and gridlock at Ports of Entry and the Tijuana River sewage crisis.
