I am writing to express my concerns regarding redrawing the lines for the San Diego Board of Supervisors. I live in San Marcos and believe the communities of North County that border the CA78 corridor should be kept together and served by one supervisor. Escondido, San Marcos, Vista, Carlsbad, and Oceanside share common interests and similar demographics. We have a large community of residents who depend on the Sprinter and other public transportation because they cannot afford to own a car. These residents deserve a single supervisor who is focused on their needs. It makes no sense to put part of Escondido in the 3rd district with the rest in the 5th.

I urge the commission to use common sense and keep the communities that border CA 78 together in the 5th Supervisor district.
