As I've said before, the need for a North San Diego County supervisory district is critical. The following communities of interest make perfect sense for inclusion in a North County District:

Post Secondary Education - Miracosta College, Palomar and CSUSM

Local Governance - all cities are represented by a local mayor and city council (Escondido, San Marcos, Vista, Oceanside and Carlsbad)

Latino Demographic - majority minority across north county cities

Military - Camp Pendleton people that are stationed either live within North County or settle down here as veterans

Transportation - 78 corridor via freeway. North County Transit District - Sprinter (Escondido, San Marcos, Vista, Carlsbad and Oceanside)

A North County District based on these criteria is logical and is in the best interests of those of us in the defined area.
