As a resident of Carlsbad, I strongly suggest redistricting that makes sense for all the current and future residents of Carlsbad. I live very close to Palomar Airport and while the airport was here before I was, I can not support any further expansion or air traffic. Enforced air traffic rules need to be set in place with input from those that live closest, not those who never seen or hear the planes overhead. Carlsbad's unique needs require the attention of those that live closest to it's beaches, freeways, and housing developments.
