I have lived in North San Diego County over 25 years. Although I live in Vista, I consider North County my home. This is the region where I live, where I work, where I volunteer, and where I spend time with my family. The cultural and social identity of North San Diego County is formed by the communities along the 78-Corridor and the 76-Corridor, who are primarily Latinx, bilingual, immigrant communities with roots that go back decades. I ask the Commission to ensure that Escondido and Fallbrook are maintained within District 5 because they represent our communities of interest and should not be divided by gerrymandering or political agendas.
