Along the 78 freeway the cities of Oceanside, Carlsbad, Vista, San Marcos and Escondido share the same economic system including jobs, schools, healthcare and housing! I believe the cities along that corridor should be in one district and unified. No region of San Diego has changed more in the last 10 years than North County! Part of our current North County district is very rural and And the cities mentioned above have become very urbanized. It just makes sense that we are in the same district.
