As an Oceanside councilmember from 2014-2018, I was involved in formation of our first local districts. I saw one councilmember recruit residents to speak at every public meeting in favor of her personal district. The result was complete gerrymandering for her own benefit.

Now our do-nothing mayor, Esther Sanchez is currently throwing her political weight around at Redistricting Commission meetings. Having worked with her over a 12-year period, I learned the hard way that whatever she does is done for her own self-interest. Anything she wants is not at all supportive of local residents, no matter what she says or where they live.

In addition, during my 4-years as Oceanside Deputy Mayor and Acting Mayor, I worked with Carlsbad, Vista, San Marcos, and Escondido leaders to craft policies to benefit our group of cities. I strongly recommend retaining these five cities as communities of interest and ask you to make no changes to our district.

Thank you for your effort to create an equitable outcome that will serve the needs of our diverse communities.
