I am a 26 year resident of Escondido who has observed how the expiring county districting has not served our community needs. Combining Escondido with rural East County was a mistake that can now be corrected by drawing lines that respect the integrity of Escondido as an urban community, not rural, and by giving a strong voice to the emerging urbanization of the cities along the 78 corridors that include Escondido, San Marcos, Vista, Oceanside, and Carlsbad. These cities are impacted by the same environmental issues, traffic, and transit, healthcare, housing, and homelessness, etc. We have more in common with our ways of life with these cities than with rural East County. Escondido belongs in District 5 with San Marcos, Vista, Oceanside, Carlsbad where our interests will be best served.
