My name is Jim Steel and I'm a resident of San Marcos. I support that district 5 will include the communities of Ocean, Carlsbad, Vista, San Marcos and Escondido along the 78 corridor. I've often wondered why these cities are not in the same BOS district as they share much in common: an economic system, schools, healthcare, housing, and environmental issues. I firmly believe that a new district 5 should not have the urban/suburban and rural divide that it has now. The 78 corridor is heavily populated with commerce that share similar interests and needs that are different from rural East county communities like Fallbrook. A BOS district that includes these 78 corridor communities with their similar issues and needs would best serve the diverse groups of people in these cities.
