As a resident of San Marcos I support a district 5 that will unite the cities along the 78 corridor. San Marcos has more in common with its neighbor cities of Oceanside, Carlsbad, Vista and Escondido than it does with rural East County. The cities along the 78 have similar environments and share similar issues, such as rapid growth, traffic and rail concerns. These are different that what is of concern in Valley Center or Pala. Please keep North County cities together and into a district that can serve it's residence needs.
