NATIVE LANDSCAPING PRINCIPLES

MAY 6, 2023 · 10-11 AM · FREE

Gardening with native plants has many benefits like water conservation, healthier soil, and restoring habitat. San Diego Canyonlands Director Clayton Tschudy, shares the importance of planting with natives in a fun and inspiring workshop during the Spring Garden & Butterfly Festival. Highly encouraged for any level gardener.

27th Annual SPRING Garden & Butterfly Festival

THE water conserving garden theGarden.org

Residents of unincorporated San Diego County who attend this class.

*Receive a FREE native plant voucher for Cuyamaca Nursery.

*Qualify for a free landscape Design Consultation (see web)

REGISTER AT THEGARDEN.ORG