6. RECRUITING:

Please describe your recruiting programs:

The Foster Youth Mentor Program (FYMP) works closely with several faith-based communities and churches throughout San Diego to recruit mentors for the program. These efforts include presentations provided to churches, as well as a specialized ministry that focuses on recruitment solely for our program. We also utilize various websites to direct individuals, who are interested in volunteering, to our program. These websites include the following: County of San Diego HHSA; Aging and Independent Services; Volunteer Match; ILS Fostering Change; San Diego State University; Mentor Coalition, Vision San Diego and Promises 2 Kids. We have participated in 6 events this past year: the Polinsky Children's Center Health Symposium, Kids Care Fest, Foster Parent Picnic, Filipino Festival, Southbay Dia de Los Ninos, and Live Well San Diego. In addition, FYMP continues the collaboration with Channel 8 KFMB, in which FYMP has been featured on the Adopt 8 segment. In April of this year, IHeartRadio (channel 94.1) featured the FYMP Program and the response was phenomenal. Other partnerships in place that aide in recruitment endeavors include San Diego County Adoptions program, County of San Diego Probation, Promises2Kids, Camp Connect Program, SouthEast Collaborative and Vision San Diego.

7. SPECIAL VOLUNTEER PROGRAM ACTIVITIES/ACHIEVEMENTS:

Please describe any special activities and/or achievements your program was involved in during the period of this report:

The Foster Youth Mentor Program (FYMP) continues to be a part of the workgroup for Camp Connect San Diego, a collaborative project between Child Welfare Services and Promises2Kids. FYMP also participates in the Mentor Coalition, which has included planning for future coalition trainings and contribution to various mentoring events. In addition, San Diego County Office of Education's Tutor Connection is still in partnership with FYMP as college student volunteers utilize the background clearance process through our program before they are matched with a foster youth. Finally, the collaboration with Channel 8 KFMB and News Anchor, Marcella Lee, proves to be very effective. The amount of inquiries about the program significantly increases each time a segment is aired about the Foster Youth Mentor Program. On April 25, 2015, in partnership with Skyline Church and Foster Collaborative, we conducted the very first Mentor Spring Fling. About a dozen foster youth were matched at that very successful event.

8. VOLUNTEER PROGRAM GOALS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2015-16:

Please describe your program goals. Include activities, number of volunteers, recruitment, training, recognition and other goals:

One of the main goals of the Foster Youth Mentor Program for the next fiscal year is continued growth, as well as to secure the quality of services foster youth are receiving. We will continue our work on increasing the number of volunteers so more youth will receive mentoring services by the program. The plan for expansion includes furthering our recruitment efforts to include a focus on local San Diego Colleges. This approach includes establishing a connection to the community colleges and universities within San Diego County so that we can participate in all the various college fairs. Our vision views college students as the ideal recruit for mentoring based on their enthusiasm to be involved in various activities and their typical ambition to make a positive impact on society. We will also continue our work on collaborating with the military. The intended plan includes establishing significant military connections which could then provide a link to recruitment opportunities. The goal is to provide mentoring information via presentations and program handouts to the military population. In regards to quality of service, we will continue ongoing monitoring and verification that current volunteers are actively mentoring and spending regular time with the foster youth. Additionally, we will focus on working closely with the Extended Foster Care program and matching non-minor dependents (those who remain in foster care until age 21) with volunteers. These youth have a significant need for a mentor to support and assist them as they work on becoming independent.
