

COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors
Introduces

Morgan Liggan

VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH – January 2019

Morgan Liggan started volunteering for the Office of the Alternate Public Defender as an Investigative Intern in June of 2018 and has donated over 300 volunteer hours. Morgan assists attorneys and investigators with case organization and research, conducts criminal records checks, serves subpoenas, accompanies investigators on field interviews and attends court hearings. She has proven to be a hardworking and reliable volunteer, consistently completing each task with exceptional attention to detail. Her presence in interviews with the case investigator helps set a comfortable and open environment where vital details can be obtained. Morgan's efforts have resulted in a positive impact in several cases and she has a genuine interest in a career in investigations.
