

COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors Introduces

Aaron Morgan

Aaron Morgan has held a variety of roles for the Registrar of Voters over the past 25 elections, from Poll Worker to Field Support Representative, and has not missed an election since 2004. For 19 elections he served as a Poll Worker and has held every precinct board position, gradually promoting to the role of a Field Support Representative, visiting precincts on Election Day, providing information on polling place procedures, Registrar of Voters' operation guidance and Poll Worker support. In addition, he volunteers as a County Election Worker assisting in the recruitment of Poll Workers throughout Central San Diego and advocates for the College Poll Worker Programs by recruiting students from local colleges in Central and North San Diego. When asked about his service Aaron stated, "I am a strong believer in democracy and by volunteering with the ROV, I am ensuring a fair and efficient election for the county, which I absolutely enjoy doing." Aaron's dedication to civic engagement has made a positive impact in our community, and for that we are grateful.
